

Analysis of algorithms

The theoretical study of computer-program performance and resource usage.

What's more important than performance?

- modularity
- correctness
- maintainability
- functionality
- robustness
- user-friendliness
- programmer time
- simplicity
- extensibility
- reliability